TESTAMONIALS TO AUTHORS

JOHNSON, SAMUEL 1709-1784

The chief glory of every people arises from its authors.

BACON, FRANCIS 1561-1626

So let great authors have their due, as time, which is the author of authors, but not deprived of his due, which is further and further to discover truth.

KEATS, JOHN 1795-1821

Axioms in philosophy are not axioms until they are proved upon our pulses: we read fine things but never feel them to the full until we have gone the same steps as the author.

LA BRUYERE, JEAN DE 1645-1696

C'est un metier que de faire un livre, comme de faire une pendule: il faut plus que de l'esprit pour etre auteur. Making a book is a craft, as is making a clock; it takes more than wit to become an author.

LANDOR, WALTER SAVAGE 1775-1864

He who first praises a book becomingly is next in merit to the author.

CHATEAUBRIAND, FRANCOIS-RENE DE 1768-1848

L'ecrivain original n'est pas celui qui n'imitte personne, mais celui que personne ne peut imiter. The original writer is not he who refrains from imitating others, but he who can be imitated by none.

ROSCOMMON, WENTWORTH DILLON, EARL OF 1633?-1685

Choose an author as you choose a friend.
