

Aging In Place

A Stakeholders' Conference on Care, Healthcare, Finance, and Law
Session Two - Thursday, September 18, 2014

Touro Law Center invites you to attend the second session of the Touro College and University System Conference on "Aging in Place" to be held at the Touro Law Center on Thursday, September 18, 2014, between 8:30 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

We invite participants to join in facilitated working sessions on innovative models and proposals for policy and regulatory change within the context of the following four areas:

- Financing and Long-Term Care Policy;
- Workforce & Workforce Training Needs;
- Livable Communities & Land Use; and
- Ethics

Lunch will be provided and there is no charge for invited participants. We would like to thank Touro College School of Health Sciences, the New York Medical College's Center for Long Term Care Research and Policy and AARP, Livable Communities, for co-sponsoring the event.

Because spaces are limited, please let us know as soon as possible if you will be attending the September 18th Conference. In addition, when confirming your attendance, please indicate your working group preference.

Responses should be sent to Robert Cannon, Coordinator, Aging and Longevity Law Institute at rcannon@tourolaw.edu or by telephone at (631) 761-7190. Please feel free to write to Mr. Cannon if you have any questions or would like further information.

We look forward to seeing you on Thursday, September 18th.
