

Printing Single-Sided

For environmental reasons, all newer Print drivers default to Double-Sided. Applications handle printing differently, so it is your responsibility to switch to single-sided before submitting the job. If you are unable to figure it out and need further assistance, use the documentation and support link <http://complab.nymc.edu/print>